

SAMARITAN ALMOST LOSES ALL OF HIS GLASSY NEW DUDS

That Came of His Endeavors to Aid Young Men Recently Out of Prison.

William Uling, a painter, of No. 125 East Fifteenth street, is prepared to enter a Webster-Hayne debate with any one who believes there is honor among thieves.

Uling once served a brief term at Elmira for larceny. When he got out he made up his mind that he would not only live a righteous life, but would try to help other men who had made mistakes to redeem themselves. He succeeded in both his ambitions. He made good in his new start, met a girl to whom he told his story and who was willing to marry him, and whenever he saw a chance he lent a helping hand to the man he had known in the reform school.

The other day he met two old Reformatory comrades—John Cavanaugh, twenty-two, of No. 6 Amsterdam avenue, and John Dee, twenty-two, of No. 625 Tenth avenue. Uling had been a sergeant in the military battalion at the Reformatory, and in that capacity he had given certain black marks and periods of extra drill to the two hopefuls he met on Broadway.

He had forgotten that when he gave them keys to the apartment and told them to consider it home. A fellow came out on his feet if he tried hard enough, he told them, and cited his own story.

"I have a good job," he said, "and expect to be married soon to a fine girl. Here, take a look at this." He threw open a wardrobe and disclosed to his guests a collection of brand new, beautifully pressed clothes, just from the tailor's.

That raiment looked classy to his ungrateful proteges and yesterday they looted the apartment of everything sartorial that they could carry. They got out of the building but were spied by detective Fitzpatrick and Gray. Dee was arrested on West Forty-seventh street station, who considered their armful of clothing a trifle suspicious and gave chase.

Fitzpatrick fired his revolver in the air and brought Dee to a stop. Cavanaugh was caught by Detective Owens. Both prisoners were arraigned in Yorkville Police Court to-day. Dee was recognized as an old offender who had served a term in the City Reformatory for grand larceny as well as a term in Elmira for burglary.

REBEL MEXICAN INDIANS TORTURE THEIR PRISONERS.

Put Federal Soldiers on Rack, Cut Off Soles of Feet, Then Make Them Walk Long Distance.

MEXICO CITY, Aug. 6.—Sierra Juarez Indians in northern Oaxaca, now in revolt, have surrounded a Federal detachment near Ixtlan, according to reports reaching here this morning. Unless the troops can cut their way out of the trap, they probably will fall victims of torture, because it is reported here that the Indians have suspended personal guarantees. Every Federal soldier captured is immediately executed, unless he happens to be of high rank. Then he is tortured before being put to death. Two soldiers who were caught near Ixtlan were stretched on a rack, then Indians with sharp knives pared off the bottoms of their feet. After this, the soldiers were forced to walk long distances. One died under the torture. The other reached the goal set by the rebels, but immediately was lynched. The Indians have been in revolt several

NEW $20 COUNTERFEIT.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 6.—A new counterfeit of the $20 gold certificate of the 1908 series has been discovered by the Secret Service and banks throughout the country have been warned against it. The counterfeit is apparently printed from photo-mechanical plates of crude workmanship on two pieces of paper between which short pieces of heavy blue silk have been massed.

The portrait of Washington is so poor, Acting Chief Moran says, that it should lead to the immediate detection of the counterfeit. It bears check letter "D," plate number 16, and the signatures of W. T. Varnum, register of the treasury, and Charles T. Treat, treasurer.

Yonkers Now Has $7,120. A canvass just completed for the annual Yonkers directory shows the population of that city to be $7,120. This is an increase of 6,900 over last year and nearly 10,000 over the figure of the Federal census of 1910.

Milady's Toilet Table By Mme. D'MILLE

"Face powders now offer inadequate protection. The hot sun burns and the shine of perspiration causes annoyance. Dissolve an original package of masticine in a half-pint of which hazel and rub a little on the face each morning. You will have a complexion protector and beautifier far superior to anything else. Masticine will not come off nor show like powder, and keeps the skin soft, fair and girlish looking."

"Many suffer from itching scalp in warm weather. A dry shampoo removes dust, dirt and excess oil; leaves the scalp clean, cool and refreshed, and the hair light, wavy and beautifully lustrous. To make a perfect shampoo powder mix four ounces of powdered orris root with an original package of masticine. Just sift a teaspoonful of this mixture on the head and brush it out thoroughly."

"Wild hair are a disfiguring blemish to a beautiful face. They can be easily, quickly and safely removed by the use of Delston's pomade. Its powdered deodorant with enough water to cover the hair, apply and after a minute or two rub off, wash the skin and the hair will be gone."

"If the eyebrows are thin and straggly growth should be applied with finger-tips, and they should be brushed gently each day to train them to grow into an arch. Eyebrows will also make the lashes grow long and silky."
